The programme has in place appropriate mechanisms/protocols, to ensure that whānau and/or hapū and/or iwi and/or hāpori are engaged, involved and consulted.

Mechanisms/protocols may include, but are not limited to:

- Relationship strategy and supporting operational policies and requirements in place
- Designated Māori relationship role/position
- Provisions for Kaumātua or whānau, hapū or iwi knowledge holders acting in an advisory capacity

Ngā Mātāpono provide guidance for Providers designing programmes that staircase the learning of all students.

Each of the mātāpono focuses on different aspects of the journey of learning and development undertaken by the ākonga in their pursuit of competency in Te Reo Māori and/or tikanga practices, and within the wider concept of Te Reo Māori me ngā Tikanga Māori. Therefore these principles are predicated on a Māori world view and are contextualised through the applied practice of Te Reo me ngā Tikanga Māori.

The Mātāpono are broad principles that ease their implementation and incorporation into the qualifications and subsequent programmes developed by Education Organisations. They are all-encompassing and support intellectual creativity and flexibility. Further, the four Mātāpono acknowledge people and place, enhance the use and recognition of te reo Māori, and recognise the value of the Reo Māori qualifications.

i. Mana Tangata:

Kia puāwai te pitomata: the potential of each learner that acknowledges one's inherent talents to learn. The Mana Tangata principle acknowledges that each learner has potential to learn, to grow, to develop, and to advance one's learning, understanding, and practice of te reo Māori me ngā tikanga. There is potential within each ākonga to:

- Identify, explore and develop one's natural talents
- Increase confidence, proficiency and competence in the use of reo Māori and ngā tikanga
- Learn and understand the relevance of reo Māori and ngā tikanga in one's life and activities.

Mana Tangata explores and develops one's cultural identity and authority but is not limited to:

- Manaakitanga (reciprocity of kindness, respect, humanity)
- Kaitiakitanga (guardianship, preservation)
- Whanaungatanga (relationships, engagement)
- Whakapapa (cultural discourse)
- Mauri Ora (health, well-being – hauora, waiora)
- Mātauranga (knowledge)

ii. Mana Whenua:

Tūrangawaewae: the acknowledgement and affirmation that the learner has a reciprocal connection and duty to the care, maintenance, and preservation of the environment and natural resources. The Mana Whenua principle requires each learner to reaffirm their connectedness to Ranginui, Papatūānuku me ngā atua Māori through studies of te reo Māori, tikanga Māori, and the Māori world view. The Mana Whenua principle also promotes the importance of location and the local environment – the places, the people, the stories, the sayings, the dialectal variations, and so on.

Mana Whenua examines inter-relationships of people, time, and place that may include but is not limited to:

- Whakapapa (cultural identity, legacy, aspirations, discourse)
- Kaitiakitanga (duty of care, guardianship, preservation)
- Manaakitanga (respect, hospitality, humanity)
- Rangatiratanga (leadership, stewardship)

- Auahatanga (innovation, enterprise)

iii. Mana Reo:

Kia tangata whenua ai te reo: the confidence and proficiency of each learner to effectively use te reo in a range of settings and contexts. The Mana Reo principle encourages each learner to acquire, grow, develop, and use multiple reo Māori and tikanga literacies accurately and competently in settings that include cultural, intellectual, social, emotional, digital environs, second language acquisition theories, and pedagogy.

Mana Reo develops confidence, competence, and fluency in all aspects of te reo Māori and tikanga learning: This may include but is not limited to:

- critical inquiry into political, social, historical, and economic issues associated with te reo Māori
- research and analysis that builds understanding and appreciation of tikanga Māori
- place and value accorded to te reo Māori and tikanga by central and local government agencies, by whānau, hapū, iwi, hāpori, by rūnanga ā-iwi, marae, and in reo Māori homes and places of work
- cultural identity and legacy – proverbs, colloquialisms, dialects, lexicon
- challenges and opportunities to maintain te mana reo and tikanga by Māori, for Māori, in Māori, and for the benefit of all New Zealanders.

iv. Mana Ao Tūroa:

Mana Ao Tūroa refers to the acquisition of proficiency and ultimately excellence as a practitioner of te reo Māori and tikanga and its application in a chosen field of endeavour as it is expressed in the natural world. The Mana Ao Tūroa principle will focus on the required skills of the field in their performance and the required knowledge of the field in its application. Mana Ao Tūroa complements and supports the other principles by providing opportunities for students to practise tikanga by combining the skills and knowledge they have learnt and showcasing them in the manner that they normally manifest in the modern world. The Mana Ao Tūroa principle will contribute the most to transformation at each level with their respective requirements of skills performance and knowledge application. Such transformation will be evident as student's transition from learner to practitioner, from follower to leader, from the emerging light to enlightenment.

“Mai te Pia ki te Tauria, mai te Hāpai ō ki te Amorangi, Mai te Wheiao ki te Ao Mārama”

Mana Ao Tūroa builds capacity to effectively and appropriately use skill, knowledge, and te reo Māori in accordance with tikanga ā-whānau, ā-hapū, ā-iwi, ā-rōpū, ā-kura, aha atu, aha atu that may include but is not limited to:

- Huihuinga (encounters of and with people)
- Kaupapa (purpose, endeavour, philosophy)
- Wero (challenge, dispute, attitudes, opinions)
- Whakatau (resolution, problem solving, authorisation)
- Mate atu he tikanga, ora ake he tikanga (adaptive practice, circumstances)

Ngā Taumata o Te Reo

Te reo kia tika, Te reo kia rere, Te reo kia Māori should be achieved by students studying te reo Māori and tikanga Māori at each level, and this whakaaro should be woven into programmes leading to Te Reo Māori qualifications at all levels.

Te Reo kia Māori.

Increased use and application of te reo Māori.

Te Reo kia Rere...

Use of te reo Māori in context

Te Reo kia Tika...

Acquisition of te reo Māori

It is recommended that Programme Developers and Teachers follow the orthographic conventions for te reo Māori, as set by Te Taura Whiri i Te Reo Māori in Te Taura Whiri i te Reo Māori Guidelines for Māori Language Orthography:

http://www.tetaurawhiri.govt.nz/english/pub_e/downloads/Guidelines_for_Maori_Language_Orthography.pdf

Te Taumata Tikanga

Te Tikanga – Kia Tika, Kia Rere, Kia Māori!

Te Taumata Tikanga should be achieved by students studying a tikanga practice at each level and this whakaaro should be woven into programmes leading to qualifications at all levels.

Kia Tika alludes to the notion that tikanga in practice is contextual and may manifest in different ways at different times in different contextual applications. Each of these ways is correct in its appropriate context and should be applied as such.

Kia Rere alludes to the notion that tikanga in practice is most important in its application and gives guidance to practitioners that allows them to pursue success in their endeavour within the parameters of their practice.

Kia Māori alludes to the notion that tikanga in practice is predicated on a foundation of understanding sourced from a Māori world view. This worldview contributes universal principles that are widely applicable in general and specifically applicable in context.
