

The Historic Camp Hale was relocated to serve behind the Auckland Museum as temporary housing. Behind the pavilion lies a hill containing a four million gallon reservoir of water. SOUTH

The East wing includes many plant trails, especially the Magnolia Plant Trail. The Historic Camp Hale was relocated behind the museum to serve as temporary housing. A special garden for the blind can be seen when ascending the pavilion's staircase that was created by the Auckland City Council and Tarnaki Lion's Club.