

NCEA Te Reo Māori Remote Learning and Assessment

NZQA has considered the impacts of the Covid-19 virus on teaching, learning and assessment programmes for NCEA Te Reo Māori. This document includes guidance for both internal and external Te Reo Māori Achievement Standards.

General Guidance

Students may need access to digital devices and internet to upload video evidence to a platform for assessors.

The current Conditions of Assessment continue to apply.

For whakarongo standards, students should continue to listen to and view te reo Māori to develop and widen vocabulary. A portfolio approach may provide greater flexibility for student working remotely on Kōrero and Waihanga Tuhinga standards. It enables them to collect evidence of speaking or crafted writing over time and select the two best pieces as evidence for summative assessment. A brief description and purpose of the task should be included.

For speaking standards, the guidelines in the standard, Conditions of Assessment and clarifications document continue to apply. A portfolio may provide greater flexibility for students working remotely. It enables them to collect evidence of speaking over time and select the best two pieces of evidence for summative assessment. A brief description and purpose of the speaking task should be included.

Te Reo Māori Matrix

KEY: A colour-coding system to categorise standards according to the advice in this document.

Green	These standards are suitable for remote teaching, learning and assessment.
Blue	Teachers can facilitate assessment against these standards by remote learning with guidance (refer to General Guidance above).
Red	These standards require a collaborative process or interaction with others, and are not suitable for remote teaching, learning and assessment.
