PART THREE: Impromptu Performance Task

INSTRUCTIONS TO THE CANDIDATE

Here is the prescribed impromptu performance task:

Use elements of drama, including physicality, dialogue, and use of space, to create a short sequence with three distinctly contrasting characters, in response to the following scenario:

“We were just finishing up for the day when something unexpected happened, and it changed everything ...”

You do not have to include the words above, but you may do so if you wish. You must play all three characters.

In your justification to camera afterwards, talk about how you developed dramatic interest. Where was it successful, and why? What might you do differently another time?

You may refer to this sheet during your justification.

The content and context of your scene must not relate to any material already presented.

You have TWO minutes to plan your performance. You may use pen and paper to plan, but not in the performance or the justification that follows it.

The scene is not to exceed TWO minutes in length.

YOU MAY RETAIN THIS CARD UNTIL AFTER YOUR PERFORMANCE AND YOUR JUSTIFICATION TO CAMERA.
